

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. REPORT.

GENERAL TREASURER'S OFFICE.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., January 2, 1911.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations:

In accordance with provisions of Section 19, Chapter 43 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1909, a detailed statement is submitted herewith of the receipts and disbursements of the treasury department for the year ending December 31, 1910.

While the cash in hand at the close of business of 1910 is not large, it is gratifying to note that during the year all demands made upon the treasury have been met without delay and the floating debt reduced from $200,000 to $50,000.

Additional revenue may be expected for 1911, as the returns filed in this office by the Boards of Assessors of the several towns and cities show an increase in valuation of both real and personal estate: real, $16,854,979, personal, $8,465,448; a total of $25,320,427 over 1909.

More revenue may also be expected from rents of oyster grounds, tax on savings banks and trust companies, State and foreign insurance companies; but unfortunately, in a growing and progressive State, the fixed charges increase in a corresponding ratio to current receipts.

It is evident from the statement below, the present sources of revenue are not in excess of the regular running expenses of the State, and if appropriations are to be made for considerable sums, either for special objects or permanent improvements, the future must be relied upon for payment.

Cash and securities in hand.....	$57,156 00
Estimated receipts, 1911.....	2,413,100 00
	$2,470,256 00

Estimated payments, fixed charges.....	$2,021,279 00
Unexpended balances of special appropriations subject to draft.....	313,724 00
Temporary loan.....	50,000 00
Unpaid bills due December 31st, 1910, as reported by State Auditor.....	75,084 00
	$2,460,087 00

Attention is directed to the excellent condition of the several sinking funds for the liquidation of the bonded indebtedness of the State.

During the year, $200,000 State House Construction Loan bonds, due January 1914, have been purchased and retired, reducing the annual interest charges many thousands of dollars, and the detailed statement attached hereto shows the fund has sufficient cash and securities to liquidate the remainder of the issue, $200,000 due 1914, and could easily take care of the $400,000 due in 1924, if the bonds were obtainable.

The Treasurer's report of 1909 called attention to the unnecessary addition of the small sums received from auctioneers' duties to the Permanent School Fund.

The original purpose of the act creating the fund was to apply the income to the support of the public schools in the several town and cities, but the returns were too small to be of value for educational purposes, and in lieu of the income one hundred and twenty thousand dollars has been annually appropriated for many years.

As the fund is no longer used for the purpose for which it was intended, the meagre sums received from auctioneers' duties should go to the general fund. It would add but little to current receipts, but it would, at least, partly compensate for the labor and expense of keeping accounts with, and collecting duties from, more than one hundred auctioneers.

I therefore recommend the repeal of Section 2, Chapter 40, of the Laws of Rhode Island 1909.

The town of Warwick having failed to pay its portion of the State tax, due December 15th, 1910, amounting to $20,332.59, a certificate to this effect has been forwarded to the Attorney General in accordance with the provisions of Section 18 of Chapter 43 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1909.

A detailed statement of the State House, Armory, Highway, Metropolitan Park, Penal and Reformatory

Institutions Sinking Funds; and the Permanent School Fund, Touro Jewish Synagogue Fund, the Land Grant Fund of 1862, and a list of unpaid bills, due December 31, 1910, is attached hereto.

In the appendix may be found a statement of the receipts and payments of the Hunters' License fund, the list of deposits by sundry trust and insurance companies, the valuation of cities and towns for 1910, and a list of the sources of revenue and the amount derived from each.

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING GENERAL TREASURER TO BORROW.

WHEREAS, At a meeting of the electors in this State, held on the third day of November, A. D. 1896, the General Assembly was "authorized to provide for the borrowing, in addition to the amount of fifty thousand dollars, which it is now authorized to borrow, the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, or so much thereof, and in such installments, as may from time to time be necessary for the uses of the State:"

Resolved, That the General Treasurer is hereby authorized to make and execute in behalf of the State, from time to time, a note or notes, payable in gold coin of the United States of the present standard of weight and fineness, and not to exceed at any time, in the aggregate of such notes, the amount of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and to negotiate the same for a period of time not longer than one year, and at a rate of interest not to exceed four per centum per annum.

Passed June 2, 1898.
